Essential Straight Towel Rail

Description

Another in The Radiator Centre's 'Essential Range', the Essential Straight Ladder Rail is one of our most popular bathroom radiators.

It comes in a variety of sizes that meets most needs, as well as in white and chrome finishes. *Please note - chrome finishes produce approximately 30% less heat output than standard white.

Also new for 2019 there are 8 sizes in an anthracite finish available from stock.

For the summer months there is the option to add an electric element for dual-fuel operation. Electric-only models are also available.
